Thank you to all who participated.

Comments:

Had a good time but noise was up to S5 here.

Heard VK6RZ and VK3TP but did not work them.

I called CQ a lot but had no reply.

Well worth the effort. Lots of lessons learned.

Band came up from over east at 10:00 UTC. May be better to start half hour later.

Because QRM tends to be on channels eg 7.025, 7.020 it is better to CQ off the channel.

COULDN'T HEAR ANYONE FOR THE FIRST HALF HOUR. MAYBE WE SHUD START LATER?

BUT STILL LOTS OF FUN. ONE DAY WILL TRY QRP.

Everything started off briskly enough then nothing after 09:56 which is a pity as I thought the bands had changed – at last.
